

CONTACT: Emily Waltenbaugh
Public Information Officer
emily.waltenbaugh@nashville.gov
(615) 862.5754 (desk)
(615) 406.8153 (mobile)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, February 13, 2017

SALON@615 WELCOMES STAHL AND OATES

Saunders, Iles, McCarthy and Baldacci Round Out Spring Slate of Free Author Talks

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Nashvillians have more opportunities to attend talks with best-selling authors this spring as part of the Salon@615 series. The spring 2017 slate includes acclaimed short story writer George Saunders with his first novel; New York Times bestselling author Greg Iles; John Oates of soul duo Hall & Oates; Emmy-winning television journalist Lesley Stahl; actor, director and award winning travel writer Andrew McCarthy; and international bestselling mystery author, philanthropist and adult literacy advocate David Baldacci.

All Salon@615 events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted.

George Saunders

Friday, February 24

6:30 p.m.

Book: Lincoln in the Bardo

Location: Parnassus Books

Greg Iles

Saturday, March 25

2:00 p.m.

Book: Mississippi Blood

Location: Main Library auditorium

John Oates

Sunday, April 9

3:00 p.m.

Book: Change of Seasons: A Memoir

Location: Main Library auditorium

Lesley Stahl

Wednesday, April 12

6:15 p.m.

Book: Becoming Grandma

Location: Main Library auditorium

Andrew McCarthy

Thursday, April 13

6:30 p.m.

Book: Just Fly Away

Location: Parnassus Books

David Baldacci

Wednesday, April 19

6:15 p.m.

Book: The Fix

Location: Main Library auditorium

About Salon@615

Salon@615 is an ongoing partnership between Nashville Public Library, Humanities Tennessee, the Nashville Public Library Foundation, Parnassus Books and BookPage designed to nurture and celebrate the literary life of Nashville by presenting bestselling authors for talks and book signings. Since its inception in early 2011, Salon@615 has become a regular and vital author series on Nashville's cultural calendar. For more information, visit www.salonat615.com.