READ to RISE

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	 615-862-5750				1 Read with your favorite stuffed animal or toy.	2 The most important word to your child is their name. Help them learn to write their name.
3 Act out "Five Little Monkeys Jumping on the Bed".	4 Sort small toys or other items according to color.	5 Give babies different textures and talk about them.	6 Have fun with rhymes by leaving out a word. See if your child will supply it!	7 Sing "Old MacDonald". What's your child's favorite animal?	8 Read a book about rabbits.	9 Write a "letter" to a loved one. Let your child scribble while you translate.
10 Hop like a bunny. How far can you go?	11 Have your child help with laundry by pairing clean socks.	12 Play with water for a great sensory experience.	13 Clap the rhythm of a rhyme or word syllables.	14 Point out the stars and sing "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star".	15 Read a wordless book.	16 Staple small blank pages together and encourage your older preschooler to write their own book.
17 Pretend your house is a hotel. Start in one room and have your child check in the whole family to the hotel.	18 Enjoy Bill Martin, Jr.'s Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? book often for color learning.	19 Deconstruct something - crumble a dry leaf to show how changes occur.	20 Choose a book question about who, what, where, when or why.	21 Sing "Apples and Bananas".	22 Read a book about gardens or flowers.	23 Do you have a favorite zoo animal? Draw a picture of it.
24 Build a fort.	25 Practice pouring skills in the bathtub with water.	26 Talk about what makes kites fly. Then, if the weather is right, fly a kite!	27 Tell your child how much their being in your family means to you.	28 Sing "Mary had a Little Lamb".	29 Read a nonfiction book.	30 Go outside and find something to draw.
