NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Registration for Nashville Public Library's 13th Annual LEGO contest is open now through Friday, Feb. 10. Registration can be completed on the library's website, where the official contest rules are also posted.

Children, teens and adults are challenged to use their own bricks to create original pieces, which they can drop off at NPL's Main Library beginning Saturday, Feb. 11. Entrants select their drop-off date and time when they register.

From Thursday, Feb. 16 through Friday, Feb. 17, all entries will be displayed at the Main Library for crowd viewing and online voting for Crowd Favorites.

A panel of judges will award first through third place and Crowd Favorite prizes in six categories: preschool-K, grades 1-2, grades 3-4, grades 5-7, grades 8-12 and adults. Winners will be announced on Saturday, Feb. 18 during an awards ceremony. Winners receive a prize ribbon and LEGO gift cards. Entries selected as Crowd Favorites by viewers will also be recognized.

The NPL LEGO Contest is sponsored by Messer Construction Co., Camp Brick LEGO Camp and the Nashville Public Library Foundation.

About Nashville Public Library

With more than two million books, movies and music items to choose from — plus great programming and resources to improve early and adult literacy, STEAM, ESL, and other key skills — NPL is Nashville's gateway to some of the best resources our city has to offer. Every year, across our 21-location system, thousands of visitors discover how our library lives up to our philosophy: At NPL, books are only half the story.
