

Going to Story Time with Wishing Chair Productions

Today, I am going to Story Time at the Nashville Public Library.

Many people like going to Story Time. I might like going to Story Time, too.

When we arrive at the Main Library, I will enter the library from the parking garage. Once I am in the library, I will follow the signs to where Story Time will be.

I will try to sit quietly on the floor or on one of the benches to watch the show.

There is a big rope in front of the stage. To be safe, everyone must always sit behind the rope.

Sometimes, different performers and puppets come to visit. The stage belongs to Library Pete, Dr. Ev , Mr. B and the guest performers when they visit.

Library Pete, Dr. Ev and Mr. B are the performers.

They might juggle, sing, draw, and read stories during the show.

Tommy Dog, Jimmy Giraffe, Coco and Jahmbi are their puppet friends.

When they sing the rainbow song, they ask children what their favorite color is.

If I want to let them know my favorite color, I will raise my hand and wait for them to call on me. If they do not call on me, that is ok.

If I need a break during the show or need use the bathroom, I can quietly go to my parent and ask them to take me.

When the show is over, my parent and I might walk around the library, or we might go back to our car to leave. I will do my best to walk and use my inside voice while I am at the library.

I might like going to Story Time at the library!
