Nashville Talking Library

Program Guide

April 2025

About the Talking Library

The Nashville Talking Library is a free audio information service of the Nashville Public Library providing books, magazines, newspapers and more to residents of Middle Tennessee with certified reading disabilities. We are on the air at all hours, seven days a week.

Nashville Talking Library programming is intended solely for individuals who cannot read conventional print due to a disability. Our programs may not be copied or redistributed.

Apply for Service

Download an application at: www.nashvilletalkinglibrary.org.

Ways to Listen

Online: After applying, you can listen to the stream at: www.nashvilletalkinglibrary.org.

Smart Speaker: Nashville Talking Library is now available on Amazon Echo (Alexa) devices. Enable our custom skill by saying: "Alexa, enable Nashville Talking Library."

Special Radio Receiver: When you apply, we can mail you a free, specially tuned, easy to use radio receiver.

Phone: Call (631) 359-9315. Long distance charges may apply if your phone plan does not include free long-distance calling.
